SOMETHING TO CONSIDER...

Journey of Enlightenment

Affords privileged access to five of the holiest and lesser-visited temples on Bali's south coast where you can join the temple priest in prayer and learn more about the incredible voyage of discovery that Dang Hyang Nirartha undertook as well as gain insightful background on the largely undocumented history of the Bukit.

Journey to Gastronomy

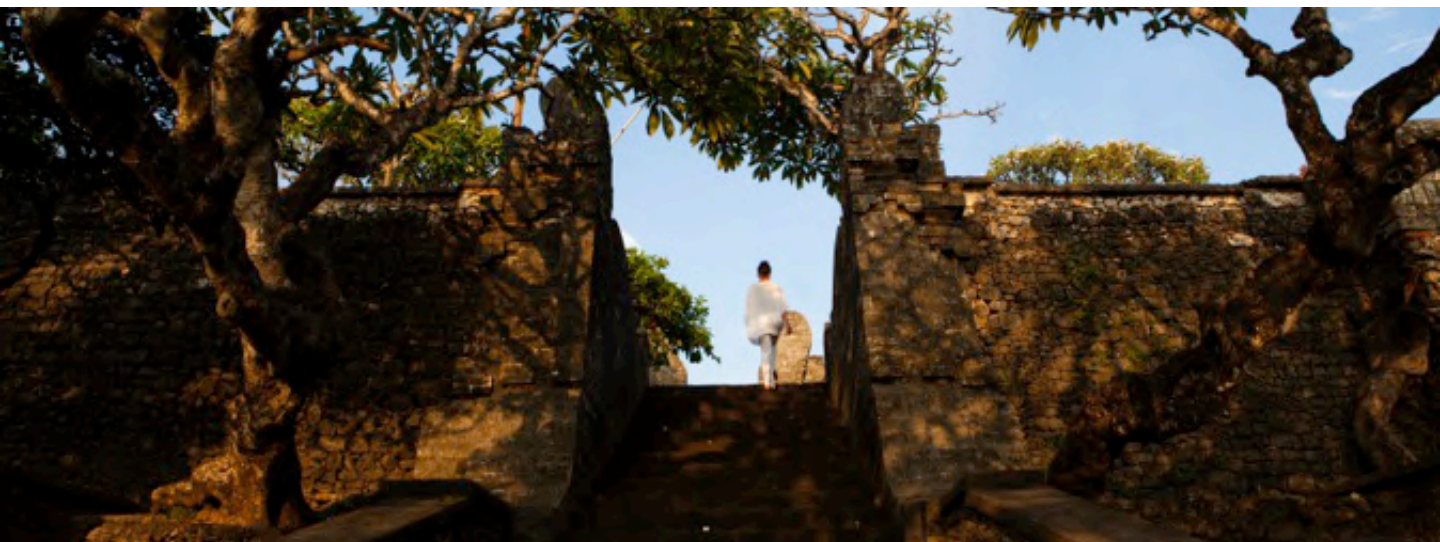

A half day cooking class that will introduce you to local ingredients, basic recipes, local cooking methods, local dishes and organic gardening.

Journey of A Batuan Artisan

Batuan painting style is often characterised by sultry and crowded representation of either legendary scenes or themes from daily life. Colours are limited and predominantly dark, lending an eerie atmosphere to the whole pictorial, and the influence of the Balinese belief in the mystical and supernatural is very apparent.

Journey of A Kamasan Artisan

Kamasan is a name of village in the kingdom of Klungkung , East Bali. Kamasan is the centre for traditional Balinese painting. Originally the Kamasan painters/artists served the Kings of Gelgel from the 16th century. Kamasan is only two miles from Gelgel, where the court reigned during Bali's golden age.
