

Alila MANGGIS . BALI

Alila Journey...

Our Leisure Concierge Concept

Real! Original! Traditional!. These three words are becoming very synonymous with East Bali. The simplicity of the folk around, the relatively un-spoilt and age old traditions, the smiling faces, the swaying palms and narrow streets with paddy and volcanoes as backdrops, East Bali & Alila Manggis are truly & Surprisingly Different.

Travelling to a new place is a journey undertaken to learn about that place, the people, the culture, the food and some of the more down to earth ways in which they may live. It is said, “Experiences provide happy memories that outlive those material things and possessions, it is indeed the key to emotional wellbeing” – a philosophy by which Alila creates. Keeping this in mind, we have compiled some experiences and journeys, packed with the option to just laze around or indulge in different activities that would take you from ancient palaces to cycling down a volcano to driving through streets surrounded by paddy fields and local people, to learning how to fish and cook like the Balinese. Some interesting dining experiences at Seasalt restaurant or at our Organic garden nearby are also available.

Alila Manggis is located in the village of Manggis, the Balinese name for the exotic ‘Mangosteen’ fruit that is purple and hard skinned on the outside with white fleshy segments inside .A secret you may not know about the Mangosteen. Is that it contains Xanthones, a powerful anti-oxidant that makes it rich in medicinal properties. These are found in some rain forest plants but nowhere are they in greater abundance than in the rind or the pericarp of the Mangosteen . The natural wood like carvings of the petals on the bottom of the fruits hard outer skin indicates how many segments are contained within. The blue petals on the tiles on the floors in the lobby that welcome you upon arrival at the resort replicate this floral design,

East Bali and the area around us have many more secrets that you may want to unravel during your stay with us. Budi is interesting local personalities who make up our Leisure Concierge team and are on hand to introduce you to these secrets and experiences that are indeed ‘Surprisingly Different’. “Selamat Bersenang–Senang”

CULINARY JOURNEY

SEASALT RESTAURANT – All-day dining restaurant

The restaurant derives its name from the Seasalt Pans in Goa Lawah nearby. The Seasalt we serve originates at these pans and it is our intention to make every effort to keep these dying pans alive by supporting the scattering of families that continue to use this age old method of panning.

Locally inspired, we definitely are. Our Head Chef Sandiasa originates from East Bali. He started his career here, then he continued his journey for several years at Alila Villas Uluwatu before comeback to Alila Manggis as a Head Chef. His overseas experience combined with his local background allows him to offer you a renewed difference in the cuisine he offers.

Through breakfast, lunch and dinner, we bring you flavors that are both local and international, some inspired and others traditional, some simple and a few slightly more complicated, some meals for one and others to share, some spicy and a couple that are not too spicy. We continue to offer dishes made of locally sourced ingredients and produce.

THE BALI AGA EXPERIENCE

2,5 Hours Journey | IDR 450,000++ per person

Tenganan is perhaps one of the most secluded and conservative villages on the island of Bali, protected by a strict code of isolationism, this original Bali Aga village has retained its unique culture and customs over the centuries. High walls surround the village, and marriage to outsiders is frowned upon, the famous double-ikat or "Gringsing" woven cloth is made here, in a process which takes anything up to four years, to complete one bundle become three piece of cloth. The aristocratic Tengananese own large tracts of fertile land, which they hire out to neighboring villagers to farm on a share-cropping basis. A number of unusual rituals take place in this village on special holy days, and once a year there is a ritual blood-shedding fight of pandanus leaves in which all the men of the village prove their manhood. The gamelan instruments used to accompany ceremony and dance are the ancient Selonding instruments, rarely seen now in other parts of Bali.

PRIVATE PURSUIT

SILVER MAKING JOURNEY

4 Hours Journey | IDR 2,250,000++ per person

The tradition of art in Bali has largely been one of anonymity. Each individual had his craft that he performed, and class or caste was irrelevant. Artists carried out their craft to serve their community and temple not for their own personal aggrandizement. The creation or the performance was for the glory of the village and the community rather than for personal fame.

Buda Keling village is the place to make that piece of silver jewelry you have been dreaming about! Learn the craft of the traditional Balinese Silversmith! Work with many traditional tools, such as the foot-pumped gasoline blow torch, and the sharpened quill used to apply the glue for granulation. The workshop to express your creativity. Try the half-day workshop and 20gram of silver to create a piece of Jewelry of your own design, suitable for beginners and experts.
