SOMETHING TO CONSIDER...

Introduction to Balinese Cuisine

Experience the entire journey from picking ingredients at the local market to cooking up some of Bali's most popular dishes. The day starts early at 7.00am with a quick coffee or breakfast in Plantation Restaurant before taking a beautiful scenic drive to Payangan market with our chef, there you'll be able to immerse yourself in the busy sights and sounds of the market, observing the locals as they go about their marketing activities . Learn from our chef more about the local ingredients as you select what you need for the day's cooking class . While you're here, why not have a taste of some authentic Balinese breakfast dishes such as Nasi Bungkus, Tipat Santok or Jajan Bali? After the market, it's back to the hotel to prepare for your cooking class You'll be cooking close to nature in an outside kitchen at our Organic Garden or Plantation Terrace. But first, refresh with a drink of young coconut water, and do you personal Alila Ubud apron – a gift from our chef. During the class , you'll learn how to prepare and cook 7-8 authentic Indonesian dishes, which you can then enjoy together for lunch in the garden or restaurant – an experience to savor long after you leave Ubud. As a further memento, you'll also receive a booklet of recipes, which you can take home with you and share your newly learnt Balinese dishes with family and friends.

Payangan Countryside Trek

Enjoy three and a half hours of wonder as you walk through lush local countryside featuring some of the most impressive rice terraces, rivers and waterfalls . Our Leisure Concierge will explain about local flora and fauna. Take this opportunity to visit a local Balinese family compound and enjoy a refreshing drink of coconut milk direct from its natural source. What to bring: sport shoes, comfortable wear, sunscreen, sunglasses, hat or cap, insect repellent.
